TALKING POINTS

AT A GLANCE

For the second year in a row, Oregon will represent the north division in the Pac-12 Championship Game when it takes on USC Friday night at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. The Ducks will look to win their second consecutive Pac-12 title under head coach MARIO CRISTOBAL and win the championship game for the fourth time overall, which would be the most of any program in the league.

SERIES HISTORY

Oregon has won five of the last seven meetings with USC dating back to 2009, including three of the last four in Los Angeles. Last year, the Ducks handed the Trojans their worst home loss in 10 years and became just the third team ever to put up at least 56 points on the Trojans at home with a 56-24 win. Oregon has scored over 50 points in each of its last three wins over USC on the road, averaging 57.0 ppg in those games. This is the first time the two teams will meet in the Pac-12 Championship Game.

CALIFORNIA LOVE

Under head coach MARIO CRISTOBAL, Oregon is 6-1 in the state of California, highlighted by last year's wins in the Pac-12 Championship Game and the Rose Bowl. Prior to Cristobal taking over, the Ducks had lost four straight games in California. Oregon's roster (110 players) features 46 players who are from California.

DUAL THREAT

Through his first five career starts, sophomore TYLER SHOUGH is one of three FBS QBs averaging 250 yards passing and 50 yards rushing per game this season. Shough has passed for 200 yards and rushed for 50 in the same game three times which is more than Oregon's total (2) from its QBs from 2015-19.

DID YOU KNOW?

TRAVIS DYE is second among all FBS running backs with 10.8 yards per offensive touch.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

1,645 Tyler Shough leads the Pac-12 with 1,645 yards of total offense which is the most by an Oregon QB through their first five starts.

Oregon's roster is made up of 73.6 percent underclassmen, good for the highest percentage in the FBS.

73.6

Oregon is averaging 45.9 points per game in its last seven meetings with USC, scoring 50-plus points three times.

Through the first five games, a total of 14 different players (Off. - 9/Def. - 5) have made their first career start.

14

With 540 yards from scrimmage on 50 touches, Travis Dye is second among FBS RB's with 10.8 yards per offensive touch.

QB TYLER SHOUGH

AWW SHOUGHS

TYLER SHOUGH is off to a strong start to his career as a starting quarterback. The Ducks' sophomore has completed 91-of-143 passes (63.6 percent) for 1,389 yards and 11 touchdowns, while rushing for 256 yards and two more TDs on just 52 carries (4.9 yards per carry).

Shough's performance compares favorably to other former Oregon quarterbacks in their first five starts overall and against conference-only opponents. Shough has the most passing yards (1,389) and yards of total offense (1,645) of any Oregon QB in their first five starts against league opponents. He is also third in rushing yards through five conference starts with 256, respectively. He trails only JEREMIAH MASOLI (407) and MARCUS MARIOTA (270).

When looking at Shough's production in comparison to other QBs in their first five overall games regardless of conference affiliation, he leads all other signal callers in total offense with RYAN PERRY-SMITH ranking second (1,596). Shough is tied for the second most passing yards with A.J. FEELEY and trails only Perry-Smith (1,609). Shough is second in rushing behind Masoli (319).

Through five starts (all vs. Pac-12 Conference teams), Shough has tossed 11 touchdown passes with three multi-TD pass games. The 11 touchdown passes through five games is tied for the second most by any quarterback in his first five starts (regardless of the opponent), while also ranking as the fourth most by a Duck QB in his first five league starts.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

LIVE AND LET DYE

The only player in the conference with over 300 yards rushing and 200 yards receiving, TRAVIS DYE made his presence felt after intermission in Oregon's first two games of the season, before having a big first half against UCLA in game three. It was back to big production in the second half in the Oregon State game before his most balanced effort of the season at Cal. Against UCLA, the Ducks turned to Dye after a CJ VERDELL fumble was returned for a TD in the first half and he responded with 86 of his 106 all-purpose yards before the break. With Verdell sidelined in the second half at Oregon State, Dye stepped in as the workhorse and finished with 71 yards rushing after the break and a season-high 93 rushing yards for the game. At Cal, Dye was a threat in both the first half and second half putting together a season-high 156 all-purpose yards with 101 (85 receiving/16 rushing) coming in the first half and another 55 rushing yards after intermission. Overall, Dye leads the team in all-purpose yards averaging 116.0 yards per game and yards per carry (7.5).

NOSE FOR THE END ZONE

Junior CYRUS HABIBI-LIKIO has scored a rushing TD in 17 of 30 career games and finished tied for fifth in the Pac-12 last season with 10. This season, Habibi-Likio scored a TD against Stanford, Washington State, Oregon State and Cal to bring his career total to 21 touchdowns, while at Autzen Stadium he has scored 14 TDs in 16 games. Over his two-plus seasons at Oregon, Habibi-Likio is averaging a rushing TD every 5.4 carries (21 TDs in 113 carries).

BIG DAY CJ

Big games have been the key to junior CJ VERDELL'S success during his career. Verdell has four career games where he has rushed for over 170 yards, led by last year's effort against Washington State where he registered career highs in both rushing yards (257) and all-purpose yards (313). Verdell has a pair of 200-plus yard rushing games during his career. In addition to the 257-yard effort vs. WSU last year, he earned MVP honors in the Pac-12 Championship game win over Utah after rushing for 208 yards and three touchdowns.

Over his four games with 170 yards rushing the last two-plus seasons, Verdell has racked up 32.6 percent (823 yards) of his career rushing total in addition to 10 of his 21 career rushing TDs. Below are Verdell's four 170-yard rushing games that are the most among active Pac-12 running backs.

EXCLUSIVE COMPANY

After rushing for 1,220 yards last year, junior CJ VERDELL is one of just six returning FBS players and the only Pac-12 player to rush for 1,000 yards in 2018 and 2019. He is one of just five players in Oregon history to surpass 1,000 yards rushing in back-to-back seasons and the third to do it as a freshman and sophomore. Heading into the 2020 season, Verdell was fourth among returning FBS players in rushing since 2018 with 2,238 yards.

The Ducks' starting running back has added to his numbers in the team's first five games, putting together his ninth and 10th career 100-yard rushing games. He rumbled for 105 yards and a TD against Stanford, and then followed up with 118 rushing yards, a TD and 36 receiving yards at Washington State. Verdell has moved into the top 10 at Oregon in career 100-yard rushing games tying TERRENCE WHITEHEAD (2002-05), ONTERRIO SMITH (2001-02), RUEBEN DROUGHNS (1998-99) and BOBBY MOORE (1969-71) for eighth. He can move into a tie for fifth with 100-plus yards Saturday vs. Colorado. Verdell is ninth all-time in rushing at Oregon and needs 23 yards against the Beavers to pass RICKY WHITTLE (1992-95) for eighth.

Oregon is one of just four FBS teams and the only Power 5 school to have three players averaging over 50 yards rushing per game this year. TRAVIS DYE leads the team with 67.2 rushing yards per game, followed by CJ VERDELL with 57.0 per game and TYLER SHOUGH averaging 51.2 yards per contest. Additionally, CYRUS HABIBI-LIKIO leads the team and is tied for fifth in the conference with four TDs on the ground.

TIGHT END PRODUCTION

Despite having a depleted tight end room in 2020, Oregon has gotten plenty of production from the position in both the rushing and passing games. In the first two games, the Ducks needed someone to step up in a big way and DJ JOHNSON did just that. Johnson, who moved to tight end from defensive end during the offseason, has seven catches for 78 yards and two touchdowns. In the Stanford game, Johnson led Oregon in receptions (5) while finishing second in receiving yards (55). In the WSU game, he added a first-quarter touchdown to become the first Oregon tight end since COLT LYERLA in 2011 to have a TD catch in each of his first two career games at the position.

Johnson got some help in the UCLA game when senior HUNTER KAMPMOYER returned to the lineup after missing the first two games. Kampmoyer, who started seven of Oregon's last eight games in 2019, joined Johnson in the starting lineup vs. the Bruins. The Ducks' senior had a career day finishing with career highs in receptions (5), receiving yards (70) and touchdowns (tied w/ 1) after entering the game with just six career receptions, 69 career receiving yards and one career TD. He continued his strong play at Oregon State scoring another TD while finishing with three receptions for 42 yards before catching one pass for eight yards at Cal.

WELCOME WILLIAMS

Before missing the Cal game, wide receiver DEVON WILLIAMS had become Oregon's go-to receiver over the previous two games finishing with a pair of 100-yard receiving games against UCLA and Oregon State. After catching just three passes in the first two games, Williams led the Ducks in both receptions (6) and receiving yards (123) while scoring a touchdown against the Bruins. He followed that effort with a team-high 101 receiving yards on four catches with another touchdown at OSU. Over the two games, Williams led the team in both receptions (10) and receiving yards (123) while matching HUNTER KAMPMOYER with a team-best two TD catches. Williams is the first Oregon receiver to have back-to-back 100-yard games since DILLON MITCHELL in 2018.

PRO-DUCK-TIVE DUO

The receiving duo of JAYLON REDD and JOHNNY JOHNSON III are among the most potent scoring combinations in the passing game returning in the Pac-12 Conference in 2020. Johnson and Redd combined for 14 receiving TDs in 2019 with both finishing with seven receiving touchdowns. Johnson added a TD catch at Washington State and another at Cal to run their combined total to 16.

CENTURY CLUB ADDS TWO MORE

In the history of Oregon football, 29 players had totaled 100 receptions during their careers heading into the Washington State game. The club grew by two in Pullman when both JAYLON REDD and JOHNNY JOHNSON III joined Oregon's other elite pass catchers. Redd was the first of the two to join the club when he caught an 11-yard pass from TYLER SHOUGH on third and four to give the Ducks a first down. Johnson joined the group early in the fourth quarter with a 2-yard TD reception from Shough to give Oregon a 28-19 lead. Heading into the Colorado game, Redd ranks in a tie for 20th all-time in career receptions with 113 while Johnson is tied for 25th with 109.

- » To crack the top 20, Johnson needs four catches if Redd doesn't add to his total and eight if he doesn't catch Redd.
- » To reach the top 10, Redd needs 21 more catches and Johnson needs 25.

REDD AGAIN AND AGAIN

Senior wide receiver JAYLON REDD caught a team-high four passes for 54 yards in Oregon's loss at Cal last week to run his streak of multiple receptions in a game to 20 dating back to Nov. 17, 2018, when he started the streak with five catches in a win over Arizona State. During the stretch, Redd has three-or-more receptions in 19 of those games, four-plus catches 13 times, five-or-more seven times with one seven-catch game and a career-high nine receptions in last year's season opener. During his career, Redd has 27 multiple-reception games in 40 games played.

Redd's active 20-game streak with multiple receptions is tied for the sixth best in the FBS, while also ranking in a tie for the longest by a Power 5 player.

ROAD GRADERS

Despite starting five offensive linemen who headed into the season with no career starts in the first two games, the Ducks' o-line opened the season with a pair of very impressive outings paving the way for 269 rushing yards against Stanford while not allowing a sack. They followed that performance with another strong effort against Washington State opening holes for Oregon's second 269 yard rushing game in as many outings, while allowing just one sack.

Pro Football Focus named the Ducks the Offensive Line of the Week after the Stanford game when Oregon was one of four FBS units to earn grades above 80.0 in both pass protection and run blocking. Individually, right guard and former walk-on RYAN WALK was named to the PFF Offensive Team of the Week and the Pac-12 Offensive Lineman of the Week following the opener, just one week after being awarded a scholarship. Following the week two win at Washington State, guard T.J. BASS joined Walk in being named Pac-12 Offensive Lineman of the Week.

- » Named to the Joe Moore Award midseason honor roll.
- » Oregon is tied for the Pac-12 lead with 11 runs of 20-plus yards.
- » The Stanford game marked the first time since 1997 that Oregon had five starters on the offensive line with a combined zero starts among them.

FROM FEAST TO FAMINE

From the end of the 2019 season to the beginning of the 2020 campaign, Oregon went from having the most experienced offensive line in the country to the least experienced in regards to starts. The Ducks finished last year with 223 starts across the offensive line after winning the 2020 Rose Bowl. Of those 223 starts, Oregon lost 222 of them to graduation or an opt-out. The lone start coming from a current Duck belonged to STEVEN JONES, who made his only career start at Utah during his true freshman season in 2018. Jones was not in the starting lineup in any of the first five games but was part of a six-man rotation across the front five.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

INSTANT IMPACT

True freshman NOAH SEWELL has gotten his collegiate career off to a strong start, recording four-plus tackles and a TFL in four of the first five games to go along with a pair of sacks and a forced fumble. Sewell is the only true freshman to start on defense for the Ducks through five games and is tied for the team lead in sacks and second in tackles and TFLs.

- » Leads Pac-12 freshmen in tackles (32) and TFLs (5.0) and tied for the lead in sacks (2.0).
- » Currently the fourth-highest graded linebacker in the Pac-12 according to Pro Football Focus.
- » Made 10 tackles with two TFLs at Oregon State - just the second Oregon freshman with double-digit tackles and at least two TFLs in a game since 2000 (Troy Dye - 2016).
- » One of just three FBS freshmen to make 10-plus tackles and at least two TFLs in a game this season.
- » Led the team with nine stops at California. The first Oregon true freshman to lead the team in tackles in a game since Troy Dye in 2016.

PRIME-TIME PLAYER

It didn't take long for KAYVON THIBODEAUX to introduce himself to the college football world. A freshman All-America pick and the Pac-12 Conference Freshman Defensive Player of the Year, he set the program freshman record with a team-high 9.0 sacks and also led the team with 14.0 tackles for loss last season. The Ducks' top-ranked recruit ever, Thibodeaux has turned up his production since the second half of 2019, totaling 51 tackles, 16.0 TFLs and 8.5 sacks in his last 11 games.

- » Has recorded at least 1.5 TFLs in seven of the last 11 games dating back to last year.
- » Led the nation last year with 7.0 sacks in the fourth quarter.
- » Became the first Oregon player since 2007 to have two games of two or more sacks in a season at Autzen Stadium last year.

YOUNG GUNS SHOWING OUT

Working with the youngest roster in the FBS, Oregon's defense has had to lean on numerous underclassmen for the majority of its production. The Ducks have gotten over 50 percent of their production from freshmen and sophomores in five major stat categories while eight different underclassmen have started a game on defense this year. Additionally, three of Oregon's top five leading tacklers are underclassmen while a freshman or sophomore has led the team in TFLs in each of the five games.

Production by Underclassmen

Category	Stat	Team Total	Percentage
Tackles	189	354	53.4
Tackles for loss	17.0	23.0	73.9
Sacks	5.0	8.0	62.5
Pass breakups	13	17	76.5
Forced Fumbles	3	4	75.0

- » The top three players on the team in TFLs are underclassmen (NOAH SEWELL, KAYVON THIBODEAUX, MASE FUNA)
- » Six of the 10 players who have a TFL are either a freshman or a sophomore.
- » Two underclassmen have led the team in tackles in a game this year (Sewell, MYKAEEL WRIGHT)

PICK PARTY

After picking off a pair of passes vs. UCLA earlier this year, Oregon now has the most games with multiple interceptions among Power 5 teams since the start of 2018. The Ducks have had at least two picks in 13 games over the last three seasons and are tied for third among all teams nationally with eight games with multiple INTs dating back to the start of last season. Additionally, two players have five career INTs (DEOMMODORE LENOIR, VERONE MCKINLEY III) with all of those coming in Pac-12 play.
